Course Instructor:
Richard D. Schreiber practices real estate law in Missouri and Illinois. He has over twenty years experience in all parts of the discipline: title work and litigation; contract negotiations for both buyer and seller; leases, utility and pipeline right of way and land acquisition. He has wide ranging jury trial experience in eminent domain matters, and is a successful appellate advocate. Schreiber has taught business law at local colleges, and lectured to professional groups, and has been a qualified legal instructor for the IRWA since 1988. He is a member and past president of Gateway Chapter 37.

Cancellation Policy: All classes scheduled by IRWA are subject to cancellation. All class registrants must contact the Course Coordinator prior to making travel arrangements, keeping in mind that the class may be cancelled at any time (for reasons including, but not limited to, insufficient registration, Instructor emergencies or other issues beyond the control of the chapter and/or IRWA). Fully liquidated damages for any losses incurred by a class registrant are limited solely to a refund of the registrant's prepaid class tuition. IRWA and its chapters assume no other registrant liability resulting from class cancellation.

Tuition Refund Policy: Written notification of intent to cancel registration must be received via email by both the Course Coordinator and IRWA Headquarters Education Staff (education@irwaonline.org) prior to the class start date in order to be eligible for a tuition refund. A full tuition refund will be issued if notice is received 15 days or more prior to the class start date; a 75% refund will be issued if notice is received less than 15 days prior to the class start date, and no refund will be issued for notice received on or after the class start date.
